

This PDF contains a few items typically used as cover. Print this out on cardstock and cut out the objects. If a gunfighter uses one of these items to hide behind, place it in front of his silhouette before laying over the Shot Clock.

The doors and windows are much sturdier if you cover them with clear tape or laminate them once you've cut them out. That way you can still see through them and tell where your target is.

